

Theme for the Day: “Welcoming and Supporting Our Friends and Neighbors”

You are invited to be with us for all or a portion of the day’s activities:

10:00-10:50

Discussion: “Growing Up in a Quaker Community”
(Child care available)

11:00-12:00

Worship
(Child care available)

12:15-1:30

Lunch ~ fellowship

12:30-2:30

“Friendly” Music ~ live performances

Entire day:

* Share your memories, visit with old and new friends

*Enjoy special children’s activities – games, crafts, dance

*Watch our 150th anniversary video of the Meeting’s history

*Visit our History display – see items, read the Meeting’s Burial Ground Biographies, pick up a self-guided history tour, ask questions

Homecoming Day !

September 22, 2013
10:00 to 2:30

Woodlawn Friends Meeting

Directions at

<http://woodlawnfriends.org/home/location/>

PLEASE tell us if you will be there!

To help us plan, email “I’m coming”
by September 15 to rigginjm@verizon.net or leave a message at the Meeting at 703-781-9185.

This day features our annual fall fundraising for United Community Ministries (UCM), a major provider of homeless support, food, job training, and family assistance in our community.

Any donation is welcome.

If you will not be able to attend, but wish to donate, a check for UCM may be sent to Treasurer, Woodlawn Friends Meeting,
8990 Woodlawn Road, Fort Belvoir VA 22060

Alexandria Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends