

Spiritual Discernment Workshop: A Day of Reflection

Are you a spiritual seeker?

Are you facing important decisions?

Looking for spiritually-centered ways to make decisions?

Do you seek guidance from the divine to fully know how to navigate life's path?

Spiritual discernment is the process of listening and responding to God's call as we make decisions throughout life. Using her book Decision Making & Spiritual Discernment: the Sacred Art of Finding Your Way, Nancy Bieber will outline a simple three-fold approach to making decisions using spiritual discernment. People of all faiths and backgrounds are welcome to attend.

When: Saturday, Feb. 16th, from 9:00-4:00

Where: Carlisle Friends Meeting House
252 A St.
Carlisle, PA 16801

Registration: Suggested donation is $15 financial assistance available

Lunch and child care will be provided.

Nancy Bieber is a member of the Lancaster Friends Meeting, a psychologist, teacher, spiritual director and retreat leader. She has been on the teaching staff of Oasis Ministries for Spiritual Development, taught courses on prayer at Lancaster Theological Seminary, led workshops at Pendle Hill and is the author of the Pendle Hill pamphlet "Communion for a Quaker." She writes that when the "Spirit illuminates the complexities of our decisions, we can see and understand more about ourselves and our choices."

Please send registration form by Saturday, February 9, to Carlisle Friends Meeting, c/o Jeremiah Cox, 252 A Street, Carlisle, PA 17013, or contact Jeremiah Cox, 717-241-2148 or jcox17013@comcast.net for more information.
