Continuing Rev_l_tion:

Young Adult Friends Conference on
Ministry, Earthcare, and Social Action

June 15 – 20, 2012

Young Adult Friends in the United States and Canada are invited to an intensive six-day conference centered on ministry, earthcare, and social action. Pendle Hill has reconceived its Young Adult Leadership Development Program (YALD), and partnered for summer 2012 with the Quaker Earthcare Witness and the Clarence and Lilly Pickett Endowment for Quaker Leadership. The result: a powerful spiritual and educational program that will provide guided discernment for Spirit-led witness in the world, joyful fellowship, transformative leadership, and nonviolent social action skill-building.

At its core, this conference is about providing the foundational skills and training for revelation—or revolution—as we strive to live in Spirit-led relationship with ourselves, our communities, and the earth.

The program will include:

- * inspirational speakers
- * workshops and trainings
- * worship and worship-sharing
- * discernment of gifts and ministry
- * service, and
- * opportunities to explore the use of nonviolent direct action.

The conference will culminate with workshops on discernment of ministry and leadings, and will include a special gathering of Pickett Endowment alumni. The Pickett Endowment alums are encouraged to share their own journeys of discerning the call to Spirit-led witness.

All Young Adult Friends (ages 18–35) in the United States and Canada are encouraged to register. Program fees, room, and board are $270 per participant. Scholarships will be available for participants who need support; interested individuals are asked to consider requesting financial assistance from their monthly/yearly meetings or other communities
