Visiting in Baltimore Yearly Meeting

This Yearly Meeting began in 1672 with Friends meeting along the banks of the West River on the Chesapeake Bay to listen to the words of George Fox and to inspire each other. While it is still important for us to come together at Annual Session each year, only a limited number of Friends are able to do so. It is still most important, however, for Friends from different Meetings to inspire each other.

We visit to share about Quaker practices and to share concerns. We visit to know each other better and to enjoy each other's company in order to strengthen our contact with the spirit and to nurture our witness in the world. Every Meeting can benefit from a visit and every visitor can benefit from the experience of the Meetings. Every Meeting is on a spiritual journey as a worshipping community. Every Meeting has a story to tell that can benefit others.

The basic process for making a visit is rather simple, but there can be many variations, because there are so many opportunities.

While there may be many reasons why individuals feel called to visit, it is important to remember that fundamentally it is a ministry of presence. Just the act of visiting with spiritual intention is a quite sufficient reason and can be highly beneficial.

Helpful Information

Before you visit:

- Coordinate your visit with the Meeting
- Traveling with a partner can make the experience more enjoyable, as Friends have done for centuries.

The visit:

- Enjoy
- Listen
- Learn

Follow up actions:

- Thank the Meeting visited
- Share about your visit with your own Meeting
